[GRADUATING STUDENT SURVEY RESULTS]

Executive Summary

Survey Respondents and Response Rate: 478 graduating students took survey

Of the 633 students at Cap & Gown Pick-Up, 478 participated in this survey for a 76% response rate. Of these respondents, 416 (87%) reported that they would be receiving an associate degree and 61 (13%) reported receiving a certificate. There were 1064 students receiving degrees in FY2017.

Employment Plans: 57% of new graduates are seeking new employment and 12% have already secured new positions

Graduates were asked about their current employment status which includes military service. If graduates responded that they were either continuing employment or beginning new employment, they were asked about the relationship of their work to their STCC education as well as whether their work is or will be full- or part-time. Of graduates responding to this question, about 69% report being currently employed. Notably, about 12% of students have secured new positions as they graduate, whether they were already employed or not. Nearly 57% of graduates are seeking new positions, whether they are currently employed or not. Many graduates are pursuing further education instead of or in addition to employment.

Continuing Education Plans: 68% of new graduates expect to continue their education

Graduates were asked about whether they will be continuing their education within the next year and whether they will do so in a full- or part-time capacity. About 70% of graduates receiving associates degrees plan to continue their education within the year, with most planning to attend a 4-year college or university. About 53% of certificate graduates plan to continue their education with the majority returning to STCC.

Perceived Educational Preparation: 97% of graduating students feel that STCC prepared them for continuing education

We asked graduates several questions about their educational experience at STCC including their overall preparedness, how their education at STCC had improved their academic and personal skills, and the barriers and supports they experienced in their efforts to complete their credentials. In response to a question about how well their STCC education had prepared them for employment or further education, only 8 students reported being either somewhat or very unprepared.

Perceived Educational Barriers: Family responsibilities, finances, and being out of school for a long time are most frequent barriers to student success

We also asked graduates about the barriers they faced as they worked to obtain their credential. For associate degree recipients, more than 50% of students experienced either minor or major barriers to their education because of: family responsibilities, financial difficulties, and job demands. More than 50% of certificate recipients experienced either minor or major educational barriers due to: not being academically prepared when they started, their academic or career goals were unclear, and it took a while for them to find the program they wanted to complete.

Perceived Educational Supports: Family, faculty, and classroom activities pave the way for success

Finally, we asked students about the factors that helped them succeed in completing their credentials. For students receiving their associate degree, more than 90% cited faculty and/or instructors (in-class time) as well as in-class experience and activities as being a part of their completion success. For students receiving certificates, more than 90% cited family inspiration, support, and encouragement, in-class experience and activities, faculty and/or instructors (in-class time), and classmate inspiration, support and encouragement as being part of their completion success.

STCC Graduating Student Survey Results: 2017

Since 2013 the Department of Institutional Effectiveness has conducted a graduating student survey at Cap & Gown Pick-Up. All survey questions can be found in Appendix I. (Please note that not all totals equal 100% due to rounding.)

Survey Respondents and Response Rate: 478 graduating students took survey

Of the 633 students at Cap & Gown Pick-Up, 478 participated in this survey for a 76% response rate. Of these respondents, 416 (87%) reported that they would be receiving an associate degree and 61 (13%) reported receiving a certificate. There were 1064 students receiving degrees in FY2017.

Of the respondents who answered the questions on race/ethnicity, 30% identified as Hispanic, 42% as white and 19% as black; 10% identified as other races or as multi-racial. There were 36% of respondents who identified as male and 63% who identified as female. We also asked students how old they were when they started their STCC education: 22% were 19 years old or younger; 30% were 20-24; 15% were 25-29, and 32% reported being 30 or older when they began their program.

Graduates were asked how long it took them to complete their credential and from which program they were receiving it. The majority of students graduating with an associate’s degree graduated in 3 years or less. The majority of students graduating with a certificate graduated in 2 years or less. The list of programs represented by credential type can be found in Appendix II of this report.

Of graduates responding to this question, about 69% report being currently employed. Notably, about 12% of students have secured new positions as they graduate, whether they were already employed or not. Nearly 57% of graduates are seeking new positions, whether they are currently employed or not. Many graduates are pursuing further education instead of or in addition to employment.

Students of color were more likely to be currently employed but seeking a new position (black: 42%, Hispanic: 37%, white: 28%). Graduate students who identified as Hispanic were more likely to currently be employed and not seeking a new position (Hispanic: 32%, white: 29%, black: 20%). Students identifying as white were more likely to have secured a new position (white: 15%, Hispanic: 9%, black: 8%).

Not employed, SECURED position	4%	5%
Entering or continuing military service	0%	2%

Graduating students who reported being currently employed or having secured a new position were asked about their full-time versus part-time status. Fifty-five (55) students had secured new positions as of Cap & Gown Pick-Up (May 2017).

Work Hours	Associates		Certificates

Work Somewhat Related to STCC Education	24%	4%	17%	20%
Not Related	49%	10%	51%	20%

Lastly, graduates were asked how prepared they felt for their current and/or new employment as a result of the academic work they completed at STCC.

Work Preparation	Associates		Certificates
	Current Position (n = 290)	New Position (n = 48)	Current Position (n = 35)	New Position (n = 5)

At a different 2 year college	6%	10%
At another non-degree educational program	0%	0%
I'm not beginning any additional education this year.	30%	47%

More students identifying as black plan to attend a 4-year college or university (black: 58%, white: 49%, Hispanic: 39%). White students were more likely to respond that they did not have immediate continuing education plans (white: 38%, Hispanic: 31%, black: 20%). Hispanic students were most likely to have plans to continue in another program at STCC (Hispanic: 22%, black: 13%, white: 8%).

Of those students pursuing additional education, about 63% plan to attend full time. This percentage remained similar when the responses were broken down by race/ethnicity (black: 66%, white: 62%, Hispanic: 61%).

Full Time Schooling	65%	47%
Part Time Schooling	35%	53%

Perceived Educational Preparation: 97% of graduating students feel that STCC prepared them for continuing education

We asked graduates several questions about their educational experience at STCC including their overall preparedness, how their education at STCC had improved their academic and personal skills, and the barriers and supports they experienced in their efforts to complete their credentials.

Institutional Effectiveness

In response to a question about how well their STCC education had prepared them for employment or further education, only 8 students reported being either somewhat or very unprepared. Over 73% of all award recipients said they were very well prepared. All students reported a similar level of being very well prepared to continue their education (black: 76%, Hispanic: 75%, white: 73%).

Educational Preparation	Associates (n = 290)	Certificates (n = 32)
Very well prepared	73%	72%
Somewhat prepared	23%	28%
Somewhat unprepared	1%	0%
Very unprepared	2%	0%
STCC education played no role in preparation for continuing education	0%	0%

Institutional Effectiveness

To learn more specifically about the preparation of the graduates, we provided a list of educational and personal skills and asked students to rate how much their STCC experience had improved these abilities. Mean improvement responses were somewhat lower for certificate than associate degree holders as might be expected given that they have spent less time at STCC to complete their credential. All mean scores were between 3 (some improvement) and 4 (a lot of improvement). Of all the skills, graduates reported the largest gains in their abilities to think critically, to get along with many different kinds of people, to better serve their community or society in general, to research a problem and assess information to address it, to contribute to group discussions and work, and to consider a subject from multiple points of view. Students of color reported the greatest gains in each of these skills.

Perceived Educational Barriers: Family responsibilities, finances, and being out of school for a long time are most frequent barriers to student success

We also asked graduates about the barriers they faced as they worked to obtain their credential. For associate degree recipients, more than 50% of students experienced either minor or major barriers to their education because of: family responsibilities, financial difficulties, and job demands. More than 50% of certificate recipients experienced either minor or major educational barriers due to: not being academically prepared when they started, their academic or career goals were unclear, and it took a while for them to find the program they wanted to complete.

Institutional Effectiveness

Students identifying as black or Hispanic reported family responsibilities (Hispanic: 29%, black: 29%, white: 10%) as a significant barrier more often than students identifying as white. Students of color also reported unclear academic or career goals (Hispanic: 18%, black: 16%, white: 7%), personal and/or health challenges (Hispanic: 16%, black: 13%, white: 5%), taking a while to find the program they wanted to complete (Hispanic: 14%, black: 11%, white: 5%), not being academically prepared (Hispanic: 12%, black: 12%, white: 8%), trouble finding the best path for completing their program (black: 12%, Hispanic: 11%, white: 5%), low expectations of them (Hispanic: 9%, black: 6%, white: 2%), not enough access to advisors (Hispanic: 8%, black: 8%, white: 1%), not enough access to tutors and other academic support (Hispanic: 8%, black: 7%, white: 1%), and not having a good place to study (Hispanic: 6%, black: 5%, white: 2%) as major barriers more often than students identifying as white. Hispanic students reported housing issues as a significant barrier more often than students identifying as white or black (Hispanic: 14%, black: 9%, white 3%).

Perceived Educational Supports: Family, faculty, and classroom activities pave the way for success

Finally, we asked students about the factors that helped them succeed in completing their credentials. For students receiving their associate degree, more than 90% cited faculty and/or instructors (in-class time) as well as in-class experience and activities as being a part of their completion success. For students receiving certificates, more than 90% cited family inspiration, support, and encouragement, in-class experience and activities, faculty and/or instructors (in-class time), and classmate inspiration, support and encouragement as being part of their completion success.

Students who identify as Hispanic reported college staff (not faculty or advisors) as critical for their success more frequently than students identifying as black or white (Hispanic: 52%, black: 45%, white: 28%). Students identifying as black identified out-of-class homework and projects (black: 63%, Hispanic: 56%, white: 44%) as more important for their success than students identifying as Hispanic or white. Students of color also identified campus activity groups or clubs (Hispanic: 37%, black 31%, white: 18%), other non-family inspiration, support or encouragement (Hispanic: 56%, black: 54%, white: 42%), and being a role model for others (Hispanic: 68%, black: 62%, white: 49%) as major success factors more frequently than students identifying as white.

Graduate Survey Trends: Improved abilities, decreased barriers, and changes to success factors

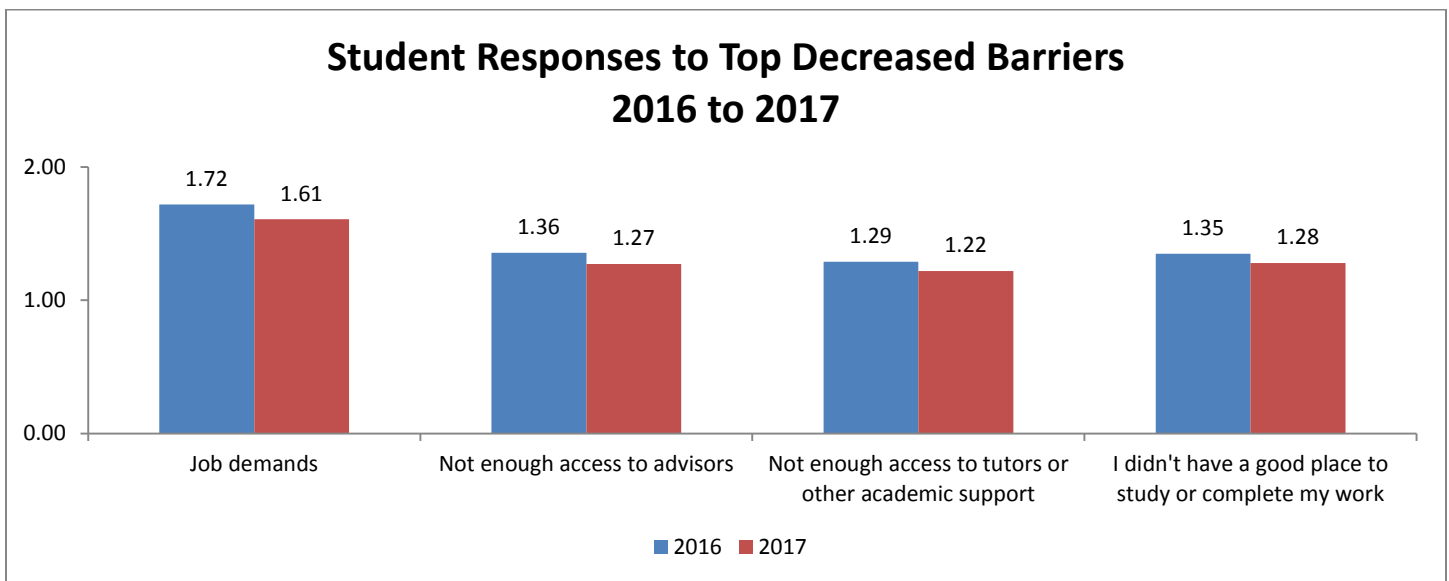

We now have five years of graduate student survey data. The graduate student survey was first implemented in 2013 and has been done annually at cap and gown pickup. Though data changes every year on most of the variables, below is a summary of some noteworthy and continuing trends for 2017.

In 2017, most abilities remained similar to last year’s results with most increasing slightly. Two that have continued to show continual increase over the five year period are writing clearly and getting along with many different kinds of people. Writing clearly has increased every year since the first graduating student survey, from a mean of 3.28 in 2013 to a mean of 3.46 in 2017, a percentage increase of 5.3%. Getting along with many different kinds of people has increased from 3.71 in 2013 to 3.98 in 2017, a percentage increase of 6.5%. Giving oral presentations has also been increasing since the question was first asked in 2014. In 2014 the mean was 3.57. The mean of giving oral presentations in 2017 was 3.70, a percentage increase of 3.6%.

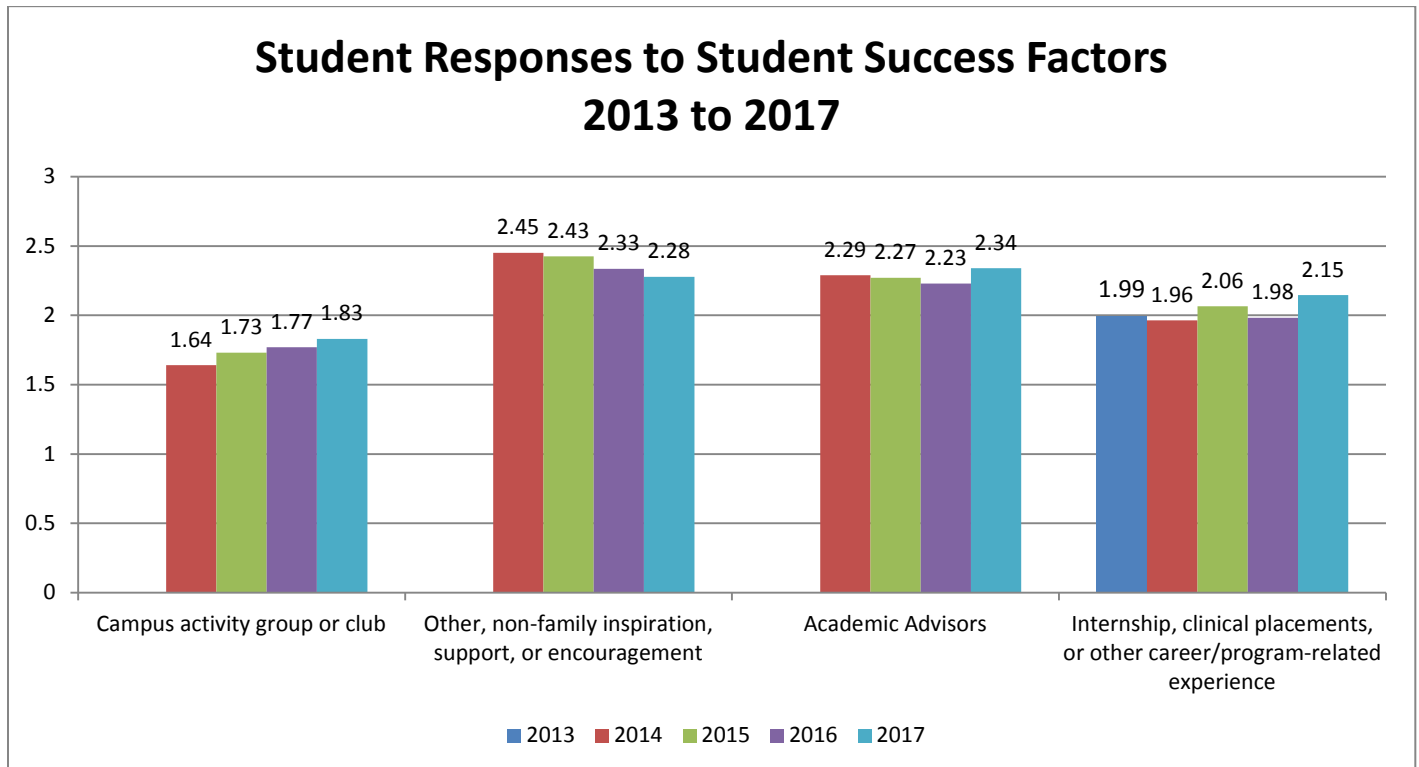

Since last year most barriers have decreased except financial difficulties (percentage increase of 1%), not being academically prepared when they started (percentage increase of 2%) and having not been in school for a long time (percentage increase of 3%). Those barriers that decreased the most since last year are job demands (percentage decrease of 7%), not enough access to advisors (percentage decrease of 7%), not enough access to tutors or other academic support (percentage decrease of 6%), and not having a good place to study or complete their work (percentage decrease of 5%).

Institutional Effectiveness

Since 2014, when graduating students were first asked if campus group activities and clubs were a success factor for them, there has been a noticeable increase in the number of students who have reported this is indeed a factor that figures into their success. In 2014 the mean for campus group activities and clubs was 1.64. In 2017 that had increased to 1.83, a percentage increase of over 10%. Another change has been the number of students who have responded that “other, non-family inspiration, support, or encouragement” is a success factor for them. It has been decreasing since 2014 from a mean of 2.45 to 2.28 (a percent decrease of 7.5%).

Two success factors that have shown an increase since last year’s graduate survey are academic advisors and internships, clinical placements, or other career/program-related experiences. In 2016 the mean of academic advisors as a success factor was 2.23. This increased to 2.34 in 2017 for a percent increase of 4.8%. The mean of internships, clinical placements, or other career/program-related experiences was 1.99 in 2016. In 2017 this increased to 2.15, a percent increase of 7.6%.

Appendix I: Graduate Survey

Congratulations on your degree! We want to learn more from you to improve the college, programs, and courses so that even more students can be successful at STCC. Thank you in advance for sharing your thoughts and experiences!! As you graduate, you become a STCC alumni member. We hope you will become an active STCC alumni member and continue to provide feedback and guidance to the college. Happy graduation, Class of 2016!

Q1 What is the PRIMARY degree you are receiving? If you are receiving more than one degree or certificate, please answer based on the degree you consider to be your main area or focus.

- Associates Degree
- Certificate

Based on their response to this question, students saw one version of Q2 and a corresponding drop-down menu listing all Associates Degrees or Certificates.

Q2: In which program are you receiving your PRIMARY associates degree?

OR

Q2: In which program are you receiving your PRIMARY certificate?

Q3 About how long did it take you to finish this degree or certificate?

- Less than 1 year
- 1 year to less than 2 years
- 2 years to less than 3 years
- 3 years to less than 4 years
- 4 years to less than 5 years
- 5 years to less than 6 years
- 6 or more years
