
Meet the Student Ambassador

Milly Oworu

My name is Milly, and I am a wife and mother of three wonderful children. My passion has always been to help people, which is why I am majoring in human services/social work. Raising my children has shown me the incredible strength and resilience of the human spirit, and it has only fueled my desire to make a positive impact on the lives of others. During my leisure time, I enjoy binge-watching quality TV shows, reading novels, and listening to music while dancing!

Why did you become a Student Ambassador?

I decided to become an ambassador because I am passionate about helping people, whether they are new students or anyone needing assistance. I believe in the importance of creating a more equitable community where everyone has access to opportunities regardless of their background. I am eager to contribute my skills and energy to this role and to the community.
